

www.chicagotribune.com/news/local/ct-nato-calendar-0516-20120516,0,7984922.story

chicagotribune.com

NATO weekend events

May 16, 2012

FRIDAY

advertisement

- Nurses group to demonstrate at Daley Plaza.
- Maritime security zone to take effect on Chicago waterways, running until Tuesday morning.
- First day of Group of Eight meetings in Camp David, Md.

SATURDAY

- Road closings to take effect. Lake Shore Drive shut from Balbo Drive to 39th Street.
- Adler Planetarium, Shedd Aquarium and Art Institute of Chicago closed through Monday. (Field Museum, however, will be open Saturday and Monday, closed Sunday.)
- Airspace restrictions to begin over Chicago area, running until Monday night.
- Metra to impose carry-on restrictions on entire system and close five stations near McCormick Place, through Monday.
- Second day of G-8 meetings in Camp David.
- President Barack Obama and first lady Michelle Obama travel to Chicago.
- Motorcades will bring dignitaries downtown from O'Hare International Airport, sometimes tying up Kennedy Expressway traffic.

SUNDAY

- First day of NATO summit at McCormick Place.
- Anti-war protesters plan rally at Petrillo Music Shell and then march to McCormick Place.
- Michelle Obama hosts NATO spouses event at Gary Comer Youth Center on the South Side.
- President Obama and other NATO leaders hold working dinner at Soldier Field.

- Michelle Obama hosts spouses dinner at Art Institute.
- North Atlantic Council of Foreign Ministers holds working dinner at Adler Planetarium.
- North Atlantic Council of Defense Ministers holds working dinner at Chicago Cultural Center.

MONDAY

- Second and final day of NATO summit at McCormick Place.
- Blue Island branch of Metra Electric line to close for day to shift staff elsewhere.
- Look for traffic tie-ups on Kennedy Expressway as leaders head for O'Hare.
- Authorities say roads that were closed will be reopened for the evening rush hour.

Copyright © 2012, Chicago Tribune